How to Download YouTube Videos by YouTube Downloader is another great feature of this software. From the interface of the application, you can see that there is a button on the top right corner. That is the "Download" button, which can be used to download a video file you have just found. Before this, you have to select the URL you want to copy in the "Select URL" field. This is required because the application doesn't let you download videos from a YouTube account by default. Once you click "Download", the software begins to save your URL in the clipboard, and then you can paste it into your favorite software or location where you want to save the file. How to Download YouTube Videos by YouTube Downloader is one of the many tools dedicated to grabbing videos from the Internet and save them to your computer, so that you can play them on other devices or using other applications. All the functions and the configuration options are comprised within a single window, with a clean and well-organized layout. You can enter the video URL manually or simply paste it in the designated section (clipboard monitoring is not available, unlike other similar tools), select the output file type and the video quality, choose the download speed and select the default destination folder for the downloaded files. One of its main advantages is the variety of output formats that it supports. It can save the video in the original MP4 format, in high-definition (MP4, at 1080p or 720p), high-quality or low-quality FLV, iPod compatible formats (MP4, at 480p), 3GP (high or low quality

YouTube Downloader is a software that helps you to download videos from YouTube. You can download videos by URL, by id or by name. The program has an intuitive and clean interface, and it does not need installation on your computer. Just download and run it. You do not have to add any extensions to your browser to use the application. How to install and use YouTube Downloader First of all, download and install the YouTube Downloader on your computer.

To download videos, you can either choose to save them to your hard drive or copy them directly to your clipboard. You have an unlimited download limit. After the installation is complete, launch the YouTube Downloader software on your computer. You can either copy the video URL manually or paste it directly in the URL field. A list of supported video formats will appear automatically. Choose the one you want to download. If you have several videos selected, the program will download them one by one. When the process is finished, select the output folder and then click "Open". If you have selected to download videos to your computer, select the output format. If you have saved videos in the clipboard, you have to press the "Open" button to paste them into the program. You will now have to specify the name of the video file (this name will be its title when saved on your computer). You can also specify the output format (either MP4, FLV, 3GP or AVI). You can set the video quality and you can choose the download speed. When you are finished, click "Start". The YouTube Downloader will start downloading the selected videos and when the process is finished, the downloaded files will be saved in the selected folder. The video file will be saved in its original format. You can extract the audio stream and save it in MP3 format. All the videos that you have downloaded will be listed on the "My list" screen. You can then play them or delete them. A click on any of the videos will open the default player that YouTube has embedded in the video page. You can pause or stop the video, or choose to open the video in the default player.
